

Holy Wisdom Monastery

2012 Volunteer in Community Letter of Recommendation _____ has applied to be a volunteer in our monastery this summer as part of a unique eco-spiritual opportunity for single women ages 20 to 50 years. An interested woman is invited to apply for two to four weeks. During that time, she will continue her spiritual journey and care for the earth on the monastery's 100+ acres. As part of the application process, she must secure two letters of recommendation.

How long have you known this person? In what capacity?

What are some reasons you recommend this person as a volunteer?

Do you consider this applicant physically and psychologically strong enough to participate in a daily routine of community living, common prayer and service?

How would you describe the applicant's ability to relate with people? To work with people?

Do you have any reservations about this person's ability to participate in this experience?
If yes, please comment further.
